SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT LIFECYCLE

Our project is an Online Bakery System, thus instead of freezing the requirements before a design or coding can proceed, a complete system prototype (with no or very less details) is built and to understand the requirements. It requires active involvement of the users.

start → Requirement gathering → Quick design → Prototype building

End product ← Engineering product ← Prototype Refining ← Evaluation by customer